Germans Hit at President in Wail Over Terms of the Treaty

Declare Reason Doesn't Prevail at Conference—Predict New Crisis

BERLIN — (Wednesday) — "Does Wilson intend to establish in Europe the slavery that Lincoln abolished?" Theodore Wolff demanded in an article in the Tageblatt Wednesday, defending Germany's counter-proposals to the peace treaty.

The counter-proposals, Wolff asserted, represented the democratic idea of right instead of the militaristic national conception that it is Germany's duty to heal what can be healed in Belgium with money. Germany, he said, must suffer for years under a burden of debt. The counter-proposals, he declared, presuppose the entente will not take from Germany its ability to pay, and suggest neutral commissions to police and oversee plebiscites in disputed territories.

It is understood here that Germany, while agreeing to the limit of 100,000 on her army, will ask a larger force temporarily to preserve internal order.

SEE NEW CRISIS

"If reason prevailed in Paris," said the Vorwarts, "the entente would grab the counter-proposals which offer a promissory note, a prospect of settlement and demobilization. But reason does not prevail, so the entente may try to force their terms and get our signatures to clauses which cannot be fulfilled, and a new crisis will result."

The Tagische Rundschau ridiculed the quotations from President Wilson's speeches in the counter-proposals, saying his conscience had so far permitted him to overstep his promises that an awakening could not be expected now.

The conservative press complained that the counter-proposals go too far, objecting particularly to the 100,000 army and dissolution of the fleet.

The German foreign office was advised Wednesday that some changes had been made in the peace treaty. It was not informed, however, as to whether the alterations were vital, or whether they affected the clauses objected to by Germany.

RETURN TO BERLIN

VERSAILLES — Two members of the German peace delegation, Lansberg and Giesbert, planned to return to Berlin Thursday night. Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau was to follow Friday or Saturday. He will return to sign the treaty, or if he refuses as a member of the delegation, another diplomat will be appointed to take his place and sign, as understood.

ROW IN ASSEMBLY

BERLIN — (Wednesday) — Members of the parties of the left and right almost came to blows in the national assembly Wednesday during the debate on the attempts to establish a separate republic in the Rhineland. The session was tumultuous.

The government made public warnings against any attempts to establish an independent Rhine republic, declaring such efforts would constitute treason, punishable by life imprisonment.

Advices from Frankfurt were that a republic would be proclaimed there Thursday.

Many speakers in the Prussian assembly attacked the Centrists alleging they encouraged the idea of a republic.

WILSON MAY RUN IF LEAGUE FAILS

Rejection or Acceptance of Covenant Will Be Campaign Issue

CHICAGO — Rejection or acceptance of the league of nations, was seen by Democrats here Thursday as the paramount issue of the 1920 campaign. The issue was named late Wednesday when the Democratic national committee in session here, adopted resolutions, demanding ratification of the league by the Republican congress.

Democrats believed rejection might force President Wilson to be a third term candidate.

Shortly after the Democrats had gone on record calling for immediate approval or disapproval, former President William Howard Taft appealed to Republicans and opposing Democrats alike to decide the question without regard to "party or political effect."

Chairman Homer S. Cummings, of the Democratic national committee declared failure of congress to approve "would strengthen pressure on the president to run again."

AUSTRIA WILL KNOW HER FATE MONDAY

WILSON'S 'WAR CABINET' MEMBERS READY TO QUIT

CHIEFS OF U. S. BOARDS PREPARE TO LEAVE POSTS

Fuel and Publicity Chairmen Have Already Sent in Resignations

Hoover Expected to Vacate About July 1—Baker Wants To Get Out

WASHINGTON — With the return of President Wilson imminent and a declaration of peace in the offing, members of the administration "war cabinet" are preparing to relinquish their posts.

Already, several resignations are before the president and others will be submitted when he returns. Those who are expected to quit their war jobs within the next few months are:

Herbert Hoover, chairman of the food administration; Vance McCormick, chairman of the war trade board; Bernard Baruch, chairman of the war industries board; George Creel, chairman of the committee on public information; Harry Garfield, chairman of the fuel administration; and Edward N. Hurley, chairman of the shipping board and emergency fleet corporation.

BAKER WANTS TO QUIT

In addition, friends of Secretary of War Baker say that President Wilson knows Baker's desire to relinquish his portfolio in the cabinet as soon as the war work in the army has been cleaned up, congress has completed investigations it has in mind, and the president feels he can spare him.

It was officially stated Thursday that Baker has no intention of resigning now. Unofficially, however, it is said, he feels the same Thursday as he did when the president began his second term—that he would get back to private work as soon as possible.

Garfield has resigned, but is spending some time in Washington, completing his report and closing up details preliminary to the passing out of his board with the declaration of peace.

Creel has submitted his resignation, but the president has not yet accepted it. The committee on public information, is still working here, but it is stated that nothing is being done, except cleaning up accounts so that Creel may make his report to the president.

SHIPPING BOARD HEAD

Chairman Hurley, of the shipping board, wishes to remain at his post only until some definite policy for the merchant marine has been determined upon. He will then resign. Hoover has planned to get out by July 1, but his work in Europe may hold him there until late in July or the first of August, according to information received here. Work of the war trade and the war industries board, created by executive order for the war period, is expected to cease with the declaration of peace.

Chairman Baruch of the war industries board is now in Paris with the peace commission, as is Chairman McCormick of the war trade board. Both, however, have directed preparation of reports on the work of their respective agencies to be ready for the president when he returns.

Disposition of the war agencies created by executive order will be one of the first things before the president when he returns. Accountings for millions of dollars spent by the different agencies are being compiled now for his perusal and approval.

WILSON CABLES MEMORIAL DAY MESSAGE

WASHINGTON — President Wilson, in a Memorial Day message to the American people Thursday, declared that the "impressive lesson and the inspiring mandate of the day" is to fulfill the hopes and purposes to the utmost of the men who sacrificed their lives for the country.

It was for the "maintenance of the liberty of the world and of the Kalut volcano and one of the Java villages believed to have been destroyed. Arrow in map points to volcano's location.

The volcano of Kalut, in Java, recently burst into eruption, wiping out twenty villages and causing deaths estimated at 15,000. Kalut is one of the fourteen active volcanoes in Java. Its last eruption was on May 23, 1902, when 181 persons were killed. Much of the island was laid waste by eruptions and earthquakes in August 1883, when the loss of life was estimated at 35,000.

CRISIS IN CANADA'S BIG STRIKE DUE TOMORROW

Government Trying to Prevent Huge Walkout Planned for Friday

OTTAWA, Ont. — Sir Robert Borden Thursday is understood to be considering calling a general conference at Ottawa to settle the strikes which are throttling industrial life in a number of Canadian cities.

All parties directly concerned in the strikes would be invited to this conference. Legislation affecting the cost of living would be one of the matters discussed, it was stated.

The strikes continued Thursday. In other cities labor unrest was apparent, according to advices received from all parts of dominion.

In Toronto the situation was tense. A general strike goes in effect Friday, unless Premier Borden can bring a settlement when he meets leaders here Thursday. The labor men want an eight-hour day. Sixty million dollars in riot insurance has been written by Toronto firms during the last week, it was reported, and the rate has risen from 30 cents to 60 cents per $100.

In Winnipeg, where the trouble originated, the government has maintained an outwardly uncompromising attitude to date, threatening dismissal of postoffice and railway mail clerks who walked out in the general strike. The city was still tied up Thursday.

Labor leaders in Vancouver were reported striving to put a general strike into effect, but postal workers failed to join the strike.

Advices from the west had it that many trades were out at Moose Jaw, Prince Albert, Regina and Calgary, but the strikes had not become general. Edmonton, however, was said to be almost completely tied up, with electric light service crippled, street cars not running and hotels partially closed.

Cincinnati Girl To Wed In Mid-air

WASHINGTON — Comes now the airplane wedding. Others have limped, ridden and "jazzed" to the altar, but Miss Marjorie Dumont, Cincinnati, and Lieutenant Robert Mead, will be united to the tune of the "Handley-Page glide."

The wedding will occur in mid-air next Saturday at Ellington Field, Houston, the air service announced. An army chaplain will perform the service in one of the huge bombing planes, Lieutenant McIntosh, field commander, giving the bride away.

FLIGHT IS DELAYED

"Jump-off" of N. C.-4 From Lisbon Postponed

WASHINGTON — Navy department officials early Thursday were uncertain as to the causes delaying Commander Read's "jump off" in the N. C.-4 from Lisbon to Plymouth, England.

In the absence of any word since the brief cable Wednesday night that the N. C.-4 would not get off Thursday, it is believed here that weather conditions must have been found unfavorable for the start.

Earlier in the evening Wednesday, the navy was informed that Read expected to get off Thursday. Cable transmission, it was said Thursday, was exceedingly slow and bad between Lisbon and the United States, which officials said, accounts for the lack of detailed information regarding the intentions of Read.

EMERGENCY AID FOR CITIES OF OHIO DEFEATED

Committee Fails to Agree on Bill—Vote Deferred Until November

COLUMBUS — Hopes of early financial relief for starving cities and school districts in Ohio, went up in smoke at noon Thursday through failure of the joint conference committee of the legislature to agree on the relief measure.

The conference committee, after nearly two days' wrangling, threw up the sponge and will recommend that the bill as passed by the house, changing the date of election from August to November be accepted. This means there will be no relief until after the November elections.

The Republican plan, which has been laid before the legislature three times in the form of bills, two of which Governor Cox vetoed, would have received the support of the Democratic minorities. If the Republicans had proved the so-called Cox plan of issuing short term notes unconstitutional.

Governor Cox, however, was unconvinced at noon Thursday that his plan is unconstitutional. He said he had been advised by lawyers that his plan was legal and he was inclined to believe that these lawyers knew as much about the matter as the lawyers who have been advising the Republicans.

Democrats urged Republicans to separate the school and cities bill and promised to support any measure for school relief.

Governor Cox has vetoed two so-called relief measures on the ground that they fractured the Smith one per cent law.

Democrats have stood by Cox in his position that the Smith one per cent law should not be fractured. Should the Republicans force through a relief bill over the veto of the governor, Democrats threaten to file referendum petitions.

ALLIES DEFER HANDING TERMS TO FOE ENVOYS

Deferred at Meeting Today on Request of Rumanian Delegate

Italian Territorial Question Still Unsettled—Wilson Stands Firm

PARIS — Presentation of the treaty to the Austrian delegates was postponed until Monday, after a plenary session of the peace conference Thursday.

The conference met in plenary session to hear a summary of the Austrian treaty read. Just before the session Premier Venizelos of Greece and T. C. Bratiano, former premier of Rumania, engaged in a wordy argument. As soon as the conference convened, Bratiano arose and requested a 48-hour postponement in the name of the Balkan states. This was granted.

Bratiano demanded time to study the treaty. The summary was not read. The conference will meet Saturday and in the meantime, portions of the treaty will be submitted to Bratiano, it is understood.

Count Von Brockdorff-Rantzau, German foreign minister, is expected to leave for home before the week end, but he—or a successor, if he withdraws from the delegation—is expected back in time to sign the treaty.

GERMAN PROPOSALS

PARIS — The first section of the German counter-proposals to the peace treaty has been delivered to the foreign office, it was announced Thursday.

The first section comprised one-third of the total German answer and was 20,000 words in length. The remainder of the counter-proposals will be delivered Thursday afternoon. Translation of the first section was begun immediately.

On the eve of the presentation of the terms to Austria, the allies are still in disagreement over the Italian claims to territories in the Adriatic, it is understood.

ITALIAN PROBLEM

The big four struggled with the Italian question for hours Wednesday, but could come to no conclusion satisfactory to all. President Wilson stood firmly on the contention that the treaty of London could not arbitrarily dispose of the destinies of peoples who were not parties to it. (It is under this treaty that Italy claims Adriatic concessions.)

When the big four could make no progress, Premier Orlando conferred with President Wilson alone and then consulted with Italian members. It was reported a plebiscite to decide the fate of eastern Austria was proposed. The Italians, it was said, indicated a willingness to make some concessions. The fact that the allies are in disagreement over important clauses as the 11th hour approaches, however, will not interfere with presentation of the treaty Friday, it was pointed out. If the Italian claims are still in dispute when time comes for informing the Austrians of the terms, sections referring to the Adriatic will be withheld and made known after a settlement is reached.

MOB IS SPRINKLED

Crowd at Yale Dispersed by Firemen Following Riot

NEW HAVEN, Conn. — Home guards who were held in readiness here to check any attempt at recurrence of Tuesday night's rioting, were sent home Thursday.

"The first fighting was by a crowd of hoodlums," said Mayor Fitzgerald. "Last night a big crowd gathered on our green here. They were curiosity seekers."

"I told these people they would have to move on and they did, but they stopped within a block or so. Then the city firemen turned on the water. It dispersed the crowd and was fine for the grass."

Mayor Fitzgerald denied that any troops are under orders in armories.

ALL FRANCE WILL HONOR U.S. HEROES

Join Americans Tomorrow in Tributes to the Yankees Buried Here

70,000 Graves to be Decorated — Wilson and Pershing Will Speak

PARIS — From Flanders to the Vosges and from war-torn northern France to the ports in the south, French and Americans will join Friday in paying tribute to America's silent army of democracy — the dead.

While thousands of hearts reach overseas in yearning memory, the army's commander-in-chief — the president — will speak of them over the graves of some of the first to fall in the desperate struggle just a year ago, when the Germans were nearest Paris. In addition, the army's field commander — Pershing — will deliver an eulogy of the soldiers who died.

These ceremonies will be at established cemeteries. But not a single American grave in France or elsewhere will be forgotten.

SCENES OF CEREMONIES

President Wilson will deliver an address at a cemetery near Paris. Buried there are men who fought at Belleau Woods and other historic spots in the Chateau Thierry region. Pershing will participate in the ceremonies at Dun Sur Meuse, Beaumont, Romagne and Thiaucourt. All these places were in German hands a year ago.

At Dun Sur Meuse, in what once was the beautiful valley of the Meuse, the heroes of America's last offensive, will be honored. Romagne is the largest American cemetery in France, between 10,000 and 12,000 being buried there. At Thiaucourt, the heroes of the St. Mihiel offensive rest.

A total of 70,000 American graves will be decorated throughout France. The quartermaster's department has furnished thousands of small flags.

OUT-OF-WAY PLACES

In out-of-the-way places, from lonehousen villages in Picardy, along the Marne, in the Lorraine and in the Vosges, little processions of French women and children will tramp along dusty roads with flags and flowers. In many cases, American officers will accompany these processions. Such scenes will be enacted at Bonvillers and other villages in Picardy where the Cantigny fighters made their supreme sacrifice. Numerous American and French pilgrims will walk from Chateau-Thierry to cemeteries in the Marne region.

Little plots of graves are on the very edge of Belleau wood, whose jagged rocks and bare trees mutely tell the story of what happened there. Far up in Lorraine, beyond Toul, beyond Lunéville, about Meul, Litour and Beaumont, rest the men among the first to fall when our troops first entered the line.

On both sides of Soissons, where heavy stillness reigns now, graves mark the place where the first and 32nd divisions threw back the Germans and all will be remembered.

DRAGGED OUT OF COURT, LYNCHED

Slayer of Missouri Sheriff Hanged in Presence of 1,000 Persons

LAMAR, Mo. — Excitement had subsided here Thursday after reaching fever heat Wednesday when Jay Lynch, confessed slayer of Sheriff John Harlow, of Barton county, and his son, Walter Harlow, was taken from the court room and lynched in the court yard before a mob of 1,000 persons.

A coroner's jury returned a verdict that Lynch met death at the hands of "parties unknown."

The leaders of the mob were "not recognized," the stated to be among the prominent business men of this town.

A hurried trial was held previous to the lynching. Judge Thurman had ascertained Lynch's plea of guilty and sentence had been pronounced when 50 men stormed the court room and took the prisoner, who was guarded by the sheriff and eight deputies. A stone rendered him unconscious and he was dragged to a tree in the yard.

ONE EDITION TOMORROW

Tomorrow being a holiday there will be but one edition of The News. This will go to press at 11:30 a. m. and will be delivered on mail routes and to city homes. The city delivery will be made shortly after noon.

SENATOR LEWIS OUTLINES PLAN TO END STRIKES

Illinois Senator Pays Brief Visit to Lima—Church Man
With Him

Characterizing the present wage system prevailing between capital and labor "a direct relic of autocracy and against the principles of Democracy," James Hamilton Lewis, Democratic United States Senator from Illinois, offered the solution of the labor problem in the terms of an equal share in the profits of labor by the working people, in an interview while in Lima Tuesday night.

"A board of directors such as distributes the dividends to the stockholders should determine the earnings of the workingman, and his share should be divided according to the part he plays in the importance of the existence of the employer," he said. "It would be impossible for future strikes and labor troubles to exist were this system inaugurated. With the workingman virtually a stockholder in the company, it is readily seen that any dissatisfaction arising would not lead to any serious trouble since the labor party would be acting against its own interests, in that any cessation of work would necessarily injure his earning capacity. Under this system one fellow-worker would not influence the judgment of another in his sense of justice to the employer."

The senator who stopped at the Barr hotel enroute to Kenton where he is to address a Democratic club was accompanied by Ernest C. Wareing, editor of the Western Christian Advocate, Cincinnati. Mr. Lewis delivered an address at the commencement exercises at the Ohio Northern University and Tuesday received the degree of Doctor of Laws from that institution. Dr. Wareing gave a morning address received the added title of Doctor of Letters in addition to his present Doctor of Divinity, following the ceremonies.

In outlining the political aspect of Ohio the senator stated that Senator Atlee Pomerene, Secretary Baker and Governor Cox were the logical candidates for the nomination in the coming presidential election. That Ohio would furnish either a co-president or president was intimated by the senator.

"The political situation of Ohio is such that it may be considered as commanding," he stated. "The Republican party must carry the state in order to win, but it is not so highly essential to the success of the Democratic party, although the leaning of the state towards the Democratic side in recent years it is likely that we may count on its support. If the successful candidate in the event of a Democratic victory is elected from the West, Ohio will furnish the vice-president. In case of the national executive being elected from the East, Ohio may be counted on to furnish the president among those three candidates," said.

Opposition to a national prohibition amendment was voiced by Lewis. According to his statement the case should be left to the smallest official unit for decision as to

LIMA PEOPLE TO ENJOY HOLIDAY

Many Will Attend Races, While Scores of Picnics Are Planned

The exodus of Limatees from the city Decoration Day promises to be large. Many out-of-town attractions will tend to draw the people away from the city, and traction lines and railroads are preparing for a large traveling public.

The warm summery weather is responsible for hundreds of picnics being planned on the velvety green carpet under the shade trees of parks and country, and tired people will take their children to the fresh air and open expanse of the fields and hills.

The Indianapolis automobile race will attract other hundreds of Lima people, many auto parties having made arrangements to motor south for the international event. Many cars were seen passing thru Lima Thursday bound for Indianapolis.

Each of Lima's parks, McCullough's and McBeth's have arranged for special programs to attract persons from the city, and music, dancing and picnicking will be indulged in at both.

The golf course promises to be well patronized at the Country Club. The grounds have been put into the best of condition and many golf parties will do the course.

All in all, the day promises to be one complete success. City folks will go to the country, and country folks are expected to seek a change and come to the city.

The weather man promises fair weather, and all bids fair to be a perfect holiday.

WIFE DECLARES SHE WAS FORCED TO WORK FOR HER SUPPORT IN FOCHT CASE

That she was forced to work for the support of herself and two minor children for the last ten months and that during the entire time, seven years, of their married life, he had bought her only two dresses and several hats, was the testimony introduced in the hearing of the divorce proceedings of Rolland B. Focht against his wife, Georgie Focht, before Judge Bailey in common pleas court Thursday morning.

Charges of gross neglect of duty were alleged in the husband's initial petition and he later charged her with extreme cruelty in an amended petition. He was compelled to pay $8 per week for the maintenance of the children he says.

In an answer and cross petition she counter-charged him with failure to provide for her and furnish the necessities of life. Several times she stated that she was compelled to arise from bed during the night to minister to the wants of his brothers who often came to the house.

Judge Bailey has taken the case under advisement.

POSTOFFICE BILL IS IN THE HOUSE

Congressman Welty Still Fighting for Much-Needed Building in Lima

Is Lima to get its much-needed new postoffice?

A bill providing "for the purchase of a site and the erection of a Federal building in the city of Lima, Ohio," has been introduced in the House of Representatives and was referred to the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds.

If Congress sees fit to act upon it at its next session, it is more than likely that it will be favorable, especially so if this particular bill is included in an omnibus bill covering several bills of similar nature.

The many appropriation bills which were killed by the filibuster of Senator La Follette during the last session, will have to be re-passed before Congress will even consider this bill, is the belief of Congressman B. F. Welty, who is father to the bill for the local postoffice.

As was at first estimated $235,000 was the amount named to be appropriated for a new post office here, but according to the Postmaster J. E. Sullivan "it would not get us to first base." In a letter to Mr. Welty, Secretary Carter Glass, of the Treasury department, suggested that it was necessary for a greater expenditure in lieu of the volume of business being done in the local building, and in view of the steady growth of postal work.

It is estimated that a two-story building is necessary, having 20,000 square feet of ground area would cost $60,000 and that a suitable site would cost $85,000, making a total cost not to exceed $85,000, which is the figure named in the house bill placed before the representatives.

OLD OFFICERS OF PIPE LINE NAMED

Personnel of Company is Not Changed—Ohio Oil Company Holds Election

A re-election of all officers was the result of the annual meeting of stockholders and board of directors of the Buckeye Pipe Line company, held at the company's offices Wednesday, North and Elizabeth street.

The five members of the director's board were present, also several stockholders, including one Ada stockholder.

The officers re-elected were: C. S. Bushnell, New York, president; O. S. June, vice-president; George Chesbro, secretary, and W. H. Livingston, treasurer.

Other matters of business interest were discussed.

The annual meeting of stockholders and directors of the Ohio Oil company took place Thursday at Findlay, all of the officers being re-elected.

Officers of the company include J. C. Donnell, president; O. D. Donnell, vice president; F. E. Hurley, second vice president; G. J. Marks, treasurer, and C. L. Fleming, secretary.

With the exception of Marks and Fleming all of the officers have held their respective positions with the company for several years. Both the latter named officers were elected recently. Marks formerly being auditor, taking the place of J. L. Cooks, who left for the Texas fields. Fleming was formerly employed in the storeroom office of the company.

PEOPLE OF OHIO PRAISE DR. WILLIAM'S PINK PILLS AS A SYSTEM BUILDER

Making the Blood Rich and Red and Giving Strength to the Nerves Mean New Health and Vigor for the Debilitated

This is an age of specialists in medicine. It is possible to obtain expert advice and treatment such as our forefathers never dreamed of for diseases that they never heard of, but the general practitioner who will sympathize and take an interest in our minor maladies and correct them before they develop into something that is worth the while of the distinguished specialist, is hard to find in these days. This fact is so generally recognized that practitioners of this type are commonly referred to as "old fashioned family doctors."

Giving all the credit due the specialists for their service to suffering humanity, it is still true that by far the greater number of serious diseases have their beginning in small ailments. Of these the majority have their origin in anemic conditions, or in other words, thin blood. When the blood is thin it may show as a digestive disturbance, as a nervous condition or as state of general debility in which no particular organ is affected but in which there is a general lowering of the tone of the system. The patient is generally pale, lacks strength and vitality, sleep is broken and disturbed and the appetite is fitful and uncertain. What is needed is a system builder, a tonic that will build up the blood, strengthen the nerves and carry new vitality to the organs that need it most. This is the particular purpose of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They build up the blood and the enriched blood coursing through the body tones it up, ministering first to the weakest organs. This is the tonic method and it is nature's own plan for protecting the body and expelling disease. The success of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in building up the blood is shown in the following cases in this state.

Severe Headaches Disappear
"I was in a general run-down condition," says Mrs. Sarah James, of No. 1101 East Main street, Coshocton, "and seemed to be drawing daily or whatever strength I had. My stomach bothered me acutely at times and I had sharp pains after eating. I had severe headaches frequently and was so weak that I could hardly get around the house. My body ached all over."

"A friend who had used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and found them an excellent tonic, urged me to give the pills a trial. I got a box and the remedy gave me almost instant relief. The headaches disappeared, my stomach gained strength and as a result I no longer had any distress after eating. I no longer ached from head to foot as I did once. I can strongly endorse Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a tonic."

People with thin blood are much more subject to headaches than full-blooded persons and the form of anemia that afflicts growing girls is almost always accompanied by headache together with digestive disturbances and constipation. Whenever you have constant or recurring headaches and pallor of the face they show that the blood is thin and your efforts should be directed toward building up your blood. A treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will do this effectively and the rich, red blood will remove the headache.

Regained Strength
An example of the efficacy of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of indigestion is the case of Mrs. Mary Hassenzehl, of No. 1817 Cherry street, Toledo.

"I had been in poor health for years," said Mrs. Hassenzehl, "and it seemed as though I would never regain my strength. After eating I suffered from a painful pressure on my stomach and this alternated with sharp knife-like pains. I had trouble in retaining my food. I also suffered from sick headaches, pains across my head and sometimes I was doubled up with cramps. These generally came after I had worked hard. I saw Dr. Williams' Pink Pills mentioned in a newspaper and procured some. There was a great improvement in my condition after I had taken the first box. Gradually I regained my strength and my stomach improved to such an extent that my food was digested without distress. The pains and cramps also gave way and I no longer have headaches. I shall certainly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at every opportunity."

Many American people suffer from indigestion. Worry, a deep grief, overwork, lack of exercise or a general run-down condition of the system will cause it. Among school children overstudy and confinement in badly ventilated rooms will bring needed nourishment to the nervous system and digestive organs by building up the blood.

Canton Woman Helped
Mrs. Anna Feller, of No. 1106 Third street, S. W., Canton, was a victim of general debility and she gladly testifies to the great benefit she received from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

"I didn't feel well for months after my baby came," says Mrs. Keller. "I was so weak that it was all I could do to get around the house. My work exhausted me quickly and I had terrible dizzy spells. My stomach was weak and caused me great distress after a meal. My sleep was broken and didn't rest me. I was lame and sore all over my body. One day a friend recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I procured a package. There was a big improvement in my condition after taking the first box and I continued the treatment. My stomach seemed to gain strength and I was able to eat a good, wholesome meal without distress. I slept better and the lameness disappeared."

As my strength returned I was able to do my work and am now practically as strong as ever. I have strongly endorsed Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to my friends."

The blood circulates throughout every portion of the body except the hair and nails. It takes the nourishment from the food and distributes it to the various muscles and organs; it takes also any medication that is administered through the mouth. The blood is the only means by which medicine can reach the nerves. If the blood is thin its carrying capacity is lessened because it is the red corpuscles in the blood that carry oxygen and other needed constituents to the various parts of the body.

After-Effects of Pneumonia
Among those who recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is Mr. C. L. Bailey, who lives at No. 14 Kingsville avenue, Ashtabula. He says:

"I had an attack of typhoid pneumonia and it left me in a badly run-down condition. This weakness probably brought on the rheumatism which affected my hands. My fingers were so stiff and swollen that I could hardly move them. My stomach was out of order and I was in distress after eating. I had very little strength and had to rest frequently. I also had dizzy spells."

"I read of a case similar to mine having been helped by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and got a box. After a few days' treatment I was convinced that the remedy would bring back my strength and I was right. The swelling and pain left my hands and I can use them now. I have regained my strength and no longer have stomach trouble or dizzy spells. I can honestly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for they helped me as nothing else did."

More disturbances to health are caused by thin blood than you have any idea of. When the blood is impoverished the nerves suffer from lack of nourishment and you may have insomnia, neuritis, neuralgia or sciatica. Muscles subject to strain are undernourished and you may have muscular rheumatism or lumbago. If your blood is thin and you begin to show symptoms of these disorders try building up the blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and see if the symptoms do not disappear as the blood is restored to normal.

When a Girl Marries

By ANN LISLE

Leaving Betty alone with her memories, her hopes and her dreams, I slipped out into the corridor to wait for Miss Moss. I was so impatient to carry my message to Terry that the minutes I spent in the hospital where Betty had gone to have her arm operated on seemed to drag along into hours. But presently Miss Moss trotted into view, bearing a heavy tray.

"An egg nog and toast for her," twittered Miss Moss. "And some lunch for you. There will be enough for Captain Winston, too."

"Then he may see her?" I ventured tactfully, concealing my plan to smuggle Terry in at once whether or no I was granted permission.

"As soon as she's had her egg nog. It's the fourth day and she's doing nicely. To-night she's going to have chicken."

Having chicken seemed to be an achievement so I exclaimed over it with due fervor as I opened the door for Miss Moss. And I got real joy out of the look of disappointment on Betty's face when she saw who her visitors were.

"Now take eat every drop of your egg nog and eat every smidgin of your toast, child—and then, we'll tell that nice captain he may stop prancing up and down the path and come in to visit you for fifteen minutes," ordered Miss Moss.

"Nice Mossie," said Betty, childishly, but her flushing cheeks and eager eyes told me she wasn't feeling a bit like a child.

I hurried through my lunch and was ready to help Miss Moss carry off the tray and herself and almost as soon as Betty had managed, with many wry faces, to gulp down her consignment of food.

"Anne, come here a minute, please," begged Betty as we were on the point of vanishing. Then her voice sank to a whisper. "Do I look very—ill? They won't let me see."

I held up a mirror that Betty might see her own radiant face. Then I put my lips to her forehead for a second and hurried after Miss Moss.

We discovered Terry, not prancing, but dragging himself aimlessly up and down at the side of the building with hunched unsoldierly shoulders and jerky, short strides. Miss Moss faded away into the shrubbery and I hurried after Terry, caught him at a turn and laid my arm on his sleeve. He stopped in his tracks and fastened his fingers on my wrist in a crushing grip.

Quick, Anne—give it to me straight. She's alright? But she won't see me?" he muttered.

"She's waiting for you, Terry."

Before I had said the last syllable of his name I beheld Terry half way to the entrance of the pavilion and I knew that he and Betty didn't need me to explain them to each other any longer.

Then I had a queer, "all gone" feeling. I suppose a mother gets such sinking sensations when she cuts off her child's fauntleroy curls and sees a shaven-pated boy emerging where lately her baby was. I imagine a father feels a bit like that when his daughter starts off to business—to be a wage-earner like him.

I managed to keep Miss Moss trotting around the grounds with me for half an hour. Then she put her hand firmly to the helm.

"Now, my dear, I've told you all about her, and how I took care of Atherton Bryce when he was a baby, and how he never was good enough to do her shoe laces, and how sure I am she'll be well in a fortnight. It's all true, but maybe the last statement won't be if I don't get in and see that she gets some rest."

And Miss Moss, teetered off at a rate that demanded my best strides to match it. At the door of the room she permitted me to outstrip her.

"I'll have to get some cracked ice," she discovered suddenly. "Take five minutes."

So with a great rattling of the doorknob, I went to Betty and Terry. He was kneeling beside the bed with Betty cuddled up against him her head on his heart. At the sound of my entrance Betty stirred, pushed him away and buried her face in the pillow so that once crimson cheek and a tear-wet eye gleamed up at me.

Terry rose and came over to the door where I was lingering half-poised for flight. He stooped down and laid his hands on my shoulders while he looked deep into my eyes.

"Sister Anne," he said. "Little sister Anne! Do you know how much we owe to you?"

"An attack of common sense," I snuffled, lifting one hand to brush away something or other that seemed to be making the whole room blur.

Terry patted me as if I were a nice child.

"You brick! You best-friend-there-ever-was! You—you little bit of all-right!"

Betty seemed to effect a miraculous recovery of her old-time poise and social ease just then, for her voice lifted out joyously:

"Stop calling her names, boy Terry, 'cause I want to ask her a leading question."

"Anne, have you ever been married on honor at a wedding?"

"No!" I gasped. "No, never when am I going to be?"

WANT HIGHER WAGES

DELPHOS—C. E. Haurv, a representative of an engineers' union, appeared before council Tuesday evening and demanded that the engineers at the city waterworks, be given an increase in salary, threatening that they would find other work if the raise was not given. He demanded that the chief receive 60c and the assistants 50c per hour. An ordinance will be presented before council for ratification at the next regular meeting.

Your National Parks

With All Their Wonders

MAKE this a summer of vacation travel. Glorious out-of-door playgrounds beckon you. Heed the call. Get away and know the scenic beauties of your own land. Summer excursion fares.

Every American should visit the National Parks. They are the nation's playgrounds. Not only do you see peaks and canyons, glaciers and geysers, big trees and volcanoes, prehistoric ruins and Indians—you here see the old wilderness places of this country—the Far West and the Old West—practically unchanged.

In this vast region you can "rough it"—can camp out, climb high peaks, go fishing and ride horseback. Around the corner, so to speak, are miles of auto boulevards, modern resort hotels, and comfortable camps.

Ask the local ticket agent to help plan your trip, or apply to the nearest Consolidated Ticket Office, or address nearest Travel Bureau, United States Railroad Administration, 646 Transportation Bldg., Chicago; 143 Liberty Street, New York City; 602 Healey Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

ALL AMERICAN DEAD IN ENGLAND TO BE HONORED

LONDON. — On Memorial day wreaths will be placed by the Knights of Columbus on the graves of all American soldiers, sailors, or marines who died and were buried in the British Isles during the war. There were nearly 3,000 deaths in the American forces at hospitals and camps in England, Scotland, and Ireland.

There will be a wreath for each grave, with the name of the dead soldier or sailor, and this inscription: "He died that we might live. In grateful memory from his fellow countrymen. The Knights of Columbus of the United States. May 30, 1919."

American graves in France and Flanders also will be decorated by the Knights on Memorial day.

CITY REFUSES TO PAY

DELPHOS—A representative of R. O. Adams, the health officer, was present at the regular meeting of the city council Tuesday evening, and requested that Adams be paid $200 claimed due him because of an increase in salary, by the board of health. Council decided that the increase was not sanctioned by it, and that if Adams would consent to work for $500 a year, the auditor would pay him to date.

HOME BREWED DRINKS FOR HOT WEATHER COMFORT

The ancient art of home brewing is to be revived.

To the faithful cooks and housewives who so long have given us food, comes a new call, this summer of 1919.

GIVE US A DRINK

In deference to the new laws of our state and country, the new brews must be nonintoxicating, practical for home manufacture and temperate in taste.

Home brewed beverages involve some time and trouble, but the art of the tall, cold drink, frosty and mint crowned and beautiful, requires only a light and artful hand, and— but small expense.

Good drink mixing requires a rather large supply of foundations, such as concentrated fruit juices, ginger ale, grape juice, a ready-made and bottled pure sugar sirup, a good chocolate sirup, and plain lemon soda and carbonated water.

A good siphon with which to dispense the carbonated water and add "fizz" to the drink and eclair to the serving of drinks, is an excellent investment for the summer drink mixer.

SUGAR SIRUPS

A pure sugar sirup is a necessity with nearly every drink. Keep it in quantity, bottled, or in covered jars ready for immediate use.

To make a sugar sirup pour 1-2 cups warm water over 2 cups granulated sugar and let stand until sugar dissolves. When dissolved bring the liquor slowly to a boil and remove from the fire at once. Cool and bottle.

A good chocolate sirup is made as follows:

Mix 1 cup granulated sugar with 1-2 cup grated bitter chocolate and put in a saucepan. Add 1 stick of bark cinnamon and cover with 3-4 cup warm water. Heat slowly, stirring constantly and boil for 2 minutes. When cool add 2 tablespoons of very strong black coffee and 1-2 teaspoons of vanilla extract. Strain the liquid and bottle. Keep in a cool place until used.

A fine strawberry sirup is made by crushing ripe strawberries in a clean cloth and pressing out enough juice to make 1 pint. To a pint of juice add 1 pint of pure sugar sirup and boil slowly for an hour. Cool, bottle and seal, and use as an extract or flavoring as desired.

CHAMPAGNE LEMONADE

The ingredients of this drink are given in the proportion used to a single glass, and must be multiplied according to the number to be served. For four persons 1 bottle of ginger ale and 1-2 cups of unfermented grape juice, with the other materials in proportion, makes a very generous serving.

The ingredients (for 1 glass) are: Juice of 1-2 lemons, 1 tablespoon fresh lime juice, 1-3 bottle ginger ale, 1 tablespoon of sugar sirup, 2 tablespoons grape juice, 1 tablespoon cracked ice.

MINT ALE

The ingredients for this delicious summer porch drink are sufficient to serve 8 or 10 persons. Serve in a large glass pitcher over cracked ice, or pour over a cake of ice in a punch bowl. The ingredients: Juice of 4 lemons, 1 bunch of fresh mint tips, 1-2 teaspoon essence of peppermint, 1 cup sugar sirup, 1-2 cup ice water, 2 large bottles ginger ale.

To make, squeeze the lemon juice, add the sirup, water and mint leaves and essence, put in a covered bowl and let stand in a half-hour. When ready to serve add the "finger ale," pour over cracked ice and garnish with fresh mint tips and lemon slices.

"CHOCOLATE FIZZ"

Mix 3 tablespoons chocolate sirup with an equal quantity of rich cream. Add 1 tablespoonful of shaved ice and fill up the glass with carbonated water.

WHITE GRAPE COCKTAIL

Mix 1 pint of white grape juice with 1 pint of lime juice, sweeten to taste with sugar sirup, and fill the glass or pitcher with cracked ice and lemon soda, or carbonated water.

Woman and Her Work

The members of the Domestic Science club entertained their husbands with a 6:30 o'clock dinner at the T. C. Pennell home on west Market street, Wednesday evening. Mrs. Pennell was assisted in the serving of the repast by her daughters, Misses Stella and Hazel, and Misses Clara and Marjorie Lynch. The committee for arrangement of the evening's pleasures were: Mrs. Charles Black, Mrs. M. Bradley, Mrs. A. E. Gale, with Mrs. Pennell as chairman.

Responses to roll call were patriotic quotations to "Our Flag." Mrs. Wynona Vinsen Forrer delighted the guests with several interesting readings. Mrs. A. C. Black sang several vocal numbers. Another vocal number "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground" was splendidly given by Mrs. T. Trout. Mrs. H. S. Chapman, a pianist of unusual ability, gave several numbers. Another enjoyable feature of the evening was the reading of a little book prepared by Lieutenant Wilcox, of the 37th division, of his experiences under fire in France. This was presented by Dr. George Hall, Mrs. T. McDonald, of the south side, a former member, was the guest of the evening.

The following officers will take charge of the work for the ensuing year: Mrs. George Hall, president; Mrs. T. C. Pennell, vice president; Mrs. C. C. Byrd, secretary; Mrs. T. Trout, treasurer. Program committee: Mrs. Charles Crippen, Mrs. C. A. Black and Mrs. H. S. Chapman.

SMART BONNETS FOR MISS TEN YEAR OLD

By ELOISE.

Have you noticed the prevalence of fabric hats? Every one seems to be choosing satins, taffetas, georgettes, novelty silk and mullins for hats instead of the usual milans, leg-horns, hair braids and chips. Why is it? Is straw hard to get? Is it just a season's fad? What is it? Everybody is asking these questions and, whatever the answer, it is unanimously decided that the fabric hat is a happy thought.

It is especially attractive for the hats of little Miss Ten-Year-Old. Here are only two of the many fabric hats which are shown in one of New York's leading kiddies' shops. Both are very sweet and girlish, as well as practical. The one above is a close-fitting little Napoleonian sailor, with a soft brim made of braided satin strips. Plain brown satin is cleverly fashioned into a soft puff crown. Little nosegays of roses, violets and buttercups are placed coyly on the crown. The hat below is a smart little bonnet for wear with the swaggy capes of this season. It is made of plaited navy satin in coronation style. A narrow band of satin with a pert little bow directly in the front is the only bit of trimming.

Wednesday evening Lee Warren, of east Elm street, celebrated his 28th birthday with a euchre party at his home. Contests and music were also enjoyed throughout the evening. Mrs. Maud Dennis and Frank Warren held high score at the conclusion of the game and Mrs. Bebbell was crowned with the "booby" prize. At a late hour a delicious luncheon was served.

Guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Scott Bebbell, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Warren, Clyde Daniels, Miss Irene Jewell, Frank Warren, Mrs. Maud Dennis, Mr. Best, Miss Virginia Reese, Everett Snyder, Koneta Snyder, Mary Jane Warren and Maxine Warren.

Mrs. M. G. Mercier and Miss Mildred Mercer of west Vine street were at Ada Wednesday attending commencement exercises at Ohio Northern University at which Donald Copeland of Wapakoneta, nephew of Mrs. Mercier, was one of the graduates, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Arts. Donald Copeland

The procession left the center at 6:30 headed by Miss Gann, Mrs. Simpson and Miss Gale Parmenter, and hiked to Hoover's park, where Miss Baer, recreation leader, had cleared a place for the camp fire and ball game. Mrs. E. B. Mitchell, of the membership committee rendered aid in planning of this outing which is to be made a permanent affair. After the feast of winners the time was spent with athletic games.

Mrs. Kelly Watkins, of Bellefontaine avenue, was hostess to the Wednesday Euchre club at her home Wednesday afternoon. Music and cards were enjoyed throughout the afternoon, with Mrs. Edward Schlatter, and Mrs. H. D. Lehman holding high score. At 5 o'clock a delicious tea was served. The tables were centered with baskets of attractive Spring flowers. Guests were Mrs. Walter Dewese, and Mrs. Harry Gable.

In two weeks the club will meet with Mrs. Earl Fisher, of the Marian Road.

An interesting meeting, both business and social, of the Lima Circle of the Child Conservation League of America was held on Wednesday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. W. E. Bayly, of 1707 Lakewood avenue. After disposing of the regular business of the circle, a well prepared and interesting paper on "What Can We Do Toward Meeting Community Needs?" was presented by Dr. Josephine Pierce.

The speaker referred to the standards as adopted by the international conference held at Washington, D. C. May 6 to 10, 1919. She said the first essential is a survey to learn what are the needs. Second: School nurses, both city and rural; third: more practical health education in the schools with height and weight to be given on report cards. She emphasized the importance of the nutritional clinic which is under negotiation by the Child Welfare Association.

The Mother's Circle of Lima, desiring carrying on their regular work, will cooperate in every way with any movement, which is for the moral betterment of conditions with locally or nationally. Mrs. Charles Schradler, treasurer, and Mrs. Lydia Carns, were appointed to do collecting for the league in the city.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday afternoon, June 11th at the home of Mrs. Joel Spyker, of 351 Lincoln avenue, at which time a vote will be taken as to a permanent place of meeting. All members are urged to be present.

A delightful surprise was tendered Miss Martha Boegel Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tarbutton, of 402 Harrison avenue. The evening was spent in dancing, after which dainty refreshments were served.

Guests were: Misses Bess Thompson, Wanda Hyde, Ethel Moyer, Pearl Schulte, Mrs. Ray Kingman, Mrs. Arthur Newman, Mrs. Ollie Meeks, Mr. and Mrs. Harold McGinnis, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Leatherman, Messrs. Samuel Ruel, of Indianapolis, Arthur Beckman, of Ada; Clarence Bailey, of Dayton, George Miller of Troy, and Roland Shook.

Kills Pesky Bed Bugs P. D. Q.

A Two ounce box of P. D. Q. makes a full quart of the best bug killer on earth. Better than a barrel of old fashioned bug killer. P. D. Q. (Pesky Devil's Quietener) kills like a 42-caliber bullet. It settles bedbugs, fleas, roaches, ants and chicken lice, and not only kills the live pests, but the eggs as well. P. D. Q. won't injure clothing, carpets, curtains, draperies or wall paper. Try it on the dog and see the fleas flop. Your druggist has it or can let it for you.

GARDEN NOTES.

Where you expected a fine crop of French peas you get a mess of vegetable oysters, and where you allowed only a little room for the string beans, figuring they would grow up in the air, you get a fine crop of cucumbers, which crawl all over the pipes under the sink. The cucumbers upset everything else in the garden except the watermelons. In the role of string bean the cucumber is a failure.

It is customary to work in the garden hard all day Monday, that being the day upon which to start every garden. On Tuesday you work four hours. On Wednesday you work two hours and then play golf. On Thursday you work a half hour and on Friday ten minutes. On Saturday you look out of the kitchen window to see if the garden is still there and on Sunday, of course, you cannot work in the garden.

Two weeks afterward the neighbors have borrowed all the tools and you can't work in the garden even if you want to. When a man makes a garden it is like playing the ukulele or putting together puzzle pictures. He has got to keep at it constantly.

It is a poor armistice garden that will not yield three or four crooked radishes and a couple of sad looking green tomatoes in the course of a season.

"GUILTY."

Ah, your "mild kills!" So mercilessly kind.
Be sure no sword were sharp to give such pain.
And no Median magic could contain
So exquisite a torture for the mind.
No, not that wicked bridal crown
could blind
A fire more faithful on the shaken brain;
Nor the drug'd splendid vest—
which did not stain
The spirit, though it ate the flesh, I find
Of old time, sir, they crucified their thieves;
But you give just cold pity, and that's worse—
Why, death were nothing; a more moment's dole—
Yet I believe you for honor grieves
And rather would it end to bless than on—
These told the body, but you stay a soul.

—Paley A. Child

WHY ASK US?

Marie W. writes in "What magazine has the best reception slip?" I think the ones "Follies" sends out are just too cute for anything. "Lili" has some good ones. My greatest ambition is to get one from "The Century."

BEYOND RECALL.

The birds came, but my eyes were sealed;
The wildflowers danced about my feet;
From leaf's dill and dill's leaf I
The vernal air flew sweet
Of, deaf and blind, with speech bleat.
"Has anyone in the world," I
But when the first snowflake streaks
my cheek,
I tremble for my best friend.

—Doris Hayden.

We seem to be a nation in our times that will never travel to the top on a high note.

Every man should be a fisher if he wants to until he goes fishing.

Why Tax Them?

OUR WAR DEBTS must be paid as speedily as possible. It is the business of the country to get them out of the way in the shortest possible time, but there is a limit to methods and in one instance at least overzealous lawmakers overstepped it.

YOU'VE SEEN the little tads, boys and girls who have scraped together five pennies, turned away from soda fountains because they didn't have the extra penny Uncle Sam asks as tax. They were denied the cone they had become accustomed to because the children who eat them now must help pay the war debt.

MANY SMALL children acquire pennies by considerable labor and about all the joy they have in life is from an ice cream cone. When they are deprived of that they lose their entire happiness.

THERE ARE other ways to get the money the government needs. Let it put a little more on diamonds, add a small amount to the burden of the faithful tin Lizzy and boost the impost on nose powder another notch, but for the love of childhood let it take off the ice cream cone tax. Children have no business to be taxed and the sooner congress takes it off the sooner it will pay a debt it owes to the little ones.

America First

WHILE AVIATORS of several nations were planning to attempt to cross the Atlantic ocean in the air, a number of brave Yankees took the best available machines and completed the feat ahead of the whole world. It was a combination of American skill and nerve that won out in this trying test, but it was expected.

THE WORLD knew that America would lose no time in trying what every nation hoped to do. It was aware that plenty of nerve was required and knew that Yankee flyers had it. When the N. C.-4 landed at Lisbon it was the accomplishment of what was considered a short time ago as a wild dream, but now that the United States has blazed the way and demonstrated that trans-oceanic flying is possible it is expected that many others will follow.

IT IS TO the war that the world owes the accomplishment just achieved. Necessity during the trying months caused a great step forward in aeronautics which would probably have required many years to take in times of peace. From now it will be a race for air supremacy and America should not lag.

If We Had Lost

NO MATTER what terms Germany signs, they will be far easier than those proposed by the rulers of that country in the summer of last year when victory for the kaiser's hordes was looming. The Allies will never be able to come near the harsh proposition Count Roon outlined at that time. He was not alone in this, as practically everyone high in authority in the German empire concurred.

THESE WERE the terms Roon outlined:
A MINIMUM indemnity of 45 billion dollars to be paid by the United States, Great Britain and France.

ANNEXATION of Belgium and the entire Flanders coast, including Calais.

ANNEXATION of the rich manufacturing and mineral region east of Toul-Belfort-Verdun.

GREAT BRITAIN to surrender its fleet to Germany, along with all naval bases and coaling stations to be designated by Germany.

EGYPT and the Suez Canal to go to Turkey.

SERBIA AND Montenegro to be divided between Germany and Bulgaria.

RETURN of the German colonies.

Today's Health Hints

SEVERE ANEMIA

Permeation isn't the word for it. Nor is it primary anemia. It is a secondary anemia, and it is a plastic anemia. It is a disease because sometimes the trouble isn't failure to manufacture red corpuscles, but too rapid death and disappearance of red cells.

To these red old souls who are content to change bodies every seven years—and maybe the itch or other complaint along with the body—it will come as a shock when we say that in hidden the spleen is constantly destroying red corpuscles and a complete new outfit of corpuscles must be produced about every thirty days regardless of the phase of the moon.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

I have a number of moles on my back and on my face. Would you tell me how they can be removed? (A. K. J.)

ANEMIA—If not large moles may be removed by electrolysis. Large moles may be removed by plastic surgery or by carbon dioxide snow applied by a surgeon.

Excessive Perspiration—Will you please reprint the formula you gave some time ago for overcoming excessive and odorous perspiration in the armpits? (G & L)

Loss of Second Toe—Please tell me whether the amputation of the second toe on each foot would noticeably affect one's gait or prevent dancing? (J. P. T.)

Fish versus Milk—Please tell me how much truth there is in the old saying that if you eat milk and fish at the same meal you will soon be ill. (Mrs. J. W. D.)

ANEMIA—Milk and fish is not an appetizing combination of foods. Gastric juice chemically adapts to the (all of the taste) to the digestion of fish is not well adapted to the digestion of milk. However, the combination is often taken by big eaters with no apparent harm. Bread and milk or bread and fish make an appetizing combination.

For Itching Eczema, Old Sores and Piles

"I guarantee my ointment," says Peterson of Buffalo, "to cure eczema, to stop the itching at once and any reliable druggist will cheerfully refund your money if PETERSON'S OINTMENT doesn't do everything I say it will do."

William A. Carley of Franklin, N. Y. is surely a wise man. He writes: "I used PETERSON'S OINTMENT on a little boy suffering terribly with eczema. It did the work."

Then there is Alex. Lottell, a brave fireman of Buffalo, who is glad to write as follows: "I had an old sore on my leg for many years. The best doctor failed. PETERSON'S OINTMENT entirely healed the sore quickly. And from over in Canada comes a letter from A. Blockley, stating: 'The best thing I ever hit for itching piles is PETERSON'S OINTMENT.' A big box for 35 cents."

CONFESSIONS of an EVERY DAY WIFE

BY IDAH M'CLONE GIBSON

EIENE'S DILEMMA

I said to Eliene after I had read her letter to her former lover: "Well, my dear, I do not see how even this can prevent your marriage with Major Gordon?" "But I have not read you the end of his letter."

Then my eyes caught these words: "At last I have found out, my darling, that I truly love you, altho I have put the world between us to realize it. I am coming home to claim you, to take you from any man who may be in your thoughts."

"I am writing this, dear Eliene, because your last letter was different from any that you have ever written me, and five times I noticed in it the name of a Major Gordon. Don't think yourself in love with him, Eliene, for you are not, and you have many, many times acknowledged me as your husband."

"I can do nothing until George gets home; then I will ask him for the letters, and if he won't give them to me I'll have to get them some other way."

"How can you put the Major off all that long time?" "I have told him that I do not want to give him his answer until after Mrs. Charlton's visit—that you had told me they seemed very much interested in each other, and I wanted him to be sure that he loved me."

"By the time Mrs. Charlton leaves, George will be home, and then I will know whether he will give me the letters or not."

"It looks like a very pretty mixup. I said to myself as I went to my room to dress for dinner."

There I found Theo fast asleep. I stole up to him and lightly kissed his cheek. He opened his eyes and smiled, and drew me down to him. "I'll be a good boy, Margot," he said in the tones he used to use when we made up as children.

about two hours ago."

"Now, what does that woman want to come for," said Theo, irritably. "Just as Eliene and the Major are getting along so beautifully?"

"Do you really want your sister to marry Major Gordon, Theo?" "Why, of course, I do. Haven't I told you that a dozen times a day ever since he came? He is a fine fellow."

"Well, if you wish it you must be very nice to Mrs. Charlton while she is here, so that the Major can give some of his time to Eliene."

"And, Margot," said Theo, suddenly, "keep Eliene from flirting around with any of the other men, for the Major has only one fault. He has an inordinately jealous disposition."

(Tomorrow—"Is Anyone Sincere?")

"I always knew he was a cad, Eliene," I said, indignantly, "but I did not know he was a scoundrel. Do you really think he will make trouble for you?"

"My dear Margot, I am just as sure as I am that we are riding along this road that when George finds some other man wants me he will not stop at anything to prevent my marriage."

"Why don't you tell the Major?" "Dear, is it possible that you have not seen that the Major is a very jealous man? When I did not answer his proposal he asked me if I had ever loved any man, and I, knowing that truly I never had, answered 'No.'"

"Now, if I should tell him about George and say that I must get those letters, he would certainly jump at the worst conclusions."

I could see that Eliene was right. "What are you going to do?" I asked.

"All right," I answered cheerfully. "Get up now and dress for dinner."

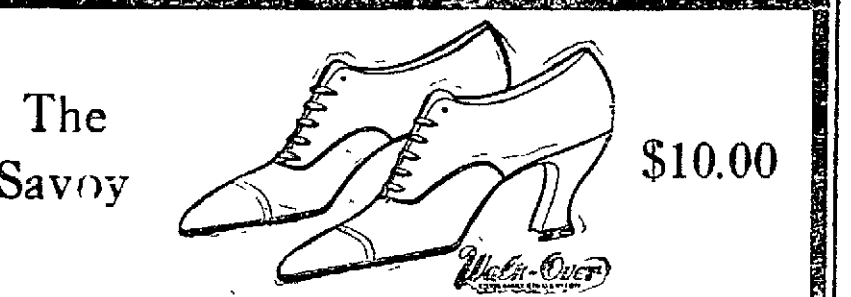

"You are not very sentimental these days, Margot," he grumbled. "It is a good thing for you that I am not," I answered lightly.

"Perhaps you are right," he said, falling into my mood. "Do we stay at home tonight?"

"We do not. We make a number of calls, one of which will be on Mrs. Charlton, who arrived at the hotel."

Lima Athletic Club Ready To Enroll Members

Application blanks for membership to the newly created Lima Athletic Club have been printed and are available from the membership committee and places where they are on sale.

The Athletic club guarantees a boxing show once a month to which all members are admitted, and which will include some of the best native talent that can be brought to the city.

The first club show to be scheduled is for June 19th, and Walter Perry, matchmaker for the club, is dickering with some of the big stars for that date. Ever Hammer, Harry Greb, Johnny Celmars, and others of that ilk will step into the ring on the opening night of the club's activities, and the fans are promised as good a show as money can procure.

Dues in the club are $12 a year, payable half yearly in advance. The club will sign 1,000 charter members, and from the inquiries and interest shown, there are more than that number in Lima and the surrounding suburbs that want to join the club.

BASEBALL FANS TO SEE MUCH ACTION

Baseball fans can satiate their appetites during the next three days by watching some high class talent on the Murphy street ball park. The Rockford, Illinois, ball club, which has the rep. of being a speedy collection, will play Friday, Saturday and Sunday in Lima, and the management of the Independents has arranged to put his best opposition in the field against the Maroons.

Costello, whose name has a pleasing sound to local fans, will cover all of center field. He is a capable stick artist, and will materially strengthen Lima's batting line.

Others on the team will be the same as at last Sunday's game, including Hikes on first, and the mysterious mound man, Nom-de-plume Pierce, serving the befuddling curves across the plate.

The Maroons are a team supported by the city of Rockford, Illinois, and they are sent on the road early in the season, and stay out late. They cover several states, but this is their first time in these latitudes, never having played so far East before.

Hikes will pitch Saturday's game, in all likelihood, and they do say he wields a wicked wing.

MIKE DONLIN IS DIP IN PLAY

Mike Donlin, former Giant star, who has been appearing in vaudeville and dramatic offerings for several years, has gone in for the "heavy stuff" now.

Yep.

Mike's playing the role of a pick-pocket in the play "Turn to the Right."

He's known as "Slippery Mugs," and plays the part of a deft and amiable "dip."

Ringside Flashes

Pottsville, Pa., offers a pot of gold for a match between Jack Britton and Benny Leonard. $15,000 is the sum the promoter will pay for a ten round bout, with Britton allowed to come in at the welterweight size. A 25,000 seat arena, and a location in the center of the coal mining belt makes the big purse possible.

Wednesday night Lew Tondler and George Chaney will get together for six rounds at the open air arena at Shibe Park, Philadelphia. It is the first open air battle staged in Philadelphia this season, and promises to become a popular attraction.

Harry Greb, of Pittsburg, and K. O. Bill Brennan may clash once again if the plans of Ad Thatcher, Toledo, materialize. He is planning a show for Toledo for the night before the big event, and if he signs the two named above several thousand fans will want to see Brennan come back after he lost to Greb two months ago.

Ever Hammer continues to lay them low, having defeated Jimmy Hamlin, at Aurora, in a ten round grind. Roy Weaver and Freddie Wolf drew in their 8 round scramble.

Frankie Britt handed a beating to K. O. Mars, at Boston, in an uninteresting 12 round battle.

Jess Willard has started East. He will stop at Kansas City Friday, visiting his family at Lawrence, Kansas, for a couple days, and then come on to Toledo. Jack Hemple accompanies him.

Al Thompson, champion of the Marines, held up his end of the string the other night in Philadelphia, when he boxed Tommy Carey, the hard hitting scrapper, and won the right to box Joe Marks tonight in the main event at Atlantic City. The Marine is proving himself some fighter.

FINED FOR SHOOTING HORSE DELPHOS — Edward Morkoetter, Washington township, was arrested late Tuesday for cruelty to animals, arraigned before Mayor Leasure, and fined $30.45. Morkoetter attempted to lead a horse from a field. When he found that he couldn't do it, it is charged he seized a gun, and shot the animal in the shoulder. A veterinarian picked over 90 buck-shot from the wound.

Watching the Scoreboard

Wednesday's her. —Pitcher Tuero. Hurling for the Cards, he smashed Jeff Pfeffer's string of consecutive victories which had been run to seven.

Hugo Bezdek ran out of reserves in the ninth inning, tied the score on the Giants and then won the ball game in the tenth, 6 to 2.

Cactus Cravath's circuit smash into the bleachers went for naught when the Reds mauled the Phillies 6 to 6.

Three triples spelled clubhouse for Jim Vaughn and Grover Alexander and Speed Martin finished a hopeless task for the Cubs. The Braves won 4 to 0.

The American Leaguers took a day off.

Short Shavings

Canon Cureton was to preach at the Abbey on a certain saint's day when the boys of Westminster school attended service and afterward the rest of the day as a holiday. Mr. Cureton was looking over his sermon when his son asked anxiously. "Father, is your sermon long?"

"No, Jimmy; not very long."
"But how long?"
"Well, about twenty minutes, I should say. But why?"
"Because the boys said they would thrash me if you were more than half an hour."

Whatever his personal attitude toward prohibition, even the most totally total testator will not begrudge a wide and sunny smile as tribute to one corner saloon exhibit. The large and dismantled show window discloses a huge pair of rubber boots, in a shockingly disreputable state, while a big placard attached asks plaintively, "If water will do this to a man's boots, what won't it do to his stomach?"

A rent collector had been waylaid and robbed. A young fellow was arrested and charged with the crime. He stoutly maintained his innocence. Despite the efforts of his council to keep him quiet, the prisoner constantly interrupted while the prosecutor was giving evidence. "How much did you say there was in the bag?" the prosecutor asked.

"I am not quite sure, but I should say over $20," was the reply.

"That's another lie," blurted out the prisoner, "there wasn't fifteen."

And he was surprised when the verdict against him.

CHICAGO — Police Magistrate James Duffy now favors gowns like those of circuit judges. Burglars Thursday stole five pairs of his trousers.

THREE SHIPLOADS OF YANKS ARRIVE

NEW YORK — Three transports, the Kroonland, the Italia and the Julia Luckenbach, reached port Thursday with returning soldiers. The Kroonland brought the 79th and 70th division headquarters troops; 79th division motor transport detachment; seventh battalion, headquarters and medical detachments, 20th engineers; headquarters company and company A to F, 304th engineers; fifth mobile ordnance repair shop; 304th air service mechanics; 648th aerodrome; headquarters third battalion, sanitary detachment and companies K, L, and M, 316th infantry (79th division).

The 319th signal battalion and some casualties were aboard the Italia. The Julia Luckenbach troops included the 309th and 310th infantry regiments of the 78th division (New York, New Jersey and Delaware.)

MEN AND MATTERS

Dr. M. H. Lichter, pastor of the Epworth Memorial church, Cleveland, will be the speaker at the commencement exercises of the Lima High school Friday, June 13. He is a speaker of wide renown. His subject will be "The New Citizenship."

The J. M. Laudick machinery business at 122-128 south Central avenue has been purchased by John M. Eavey, who has been in this business west of the city for some time. He will take possession next Monday.

More than 100 members were gained in the Y. M. C. A. membership drive, according to partial reports made at headquarters. The drive closed last night.

J. V. Dimond has purchased the old Day Nursery building from the Co-operative Realty Company and will remove it next week. Work on a new building will be started there at once.

CLASS RECEPTION
WAPAKONETA — With school faculty and board members present as guests, the junior reception held at the high school auditorium Tuesday evening was a complete success in every way. The auditorium was decorated for the occasion. The entrance of the hall was decorated with a large arch bearing the colors of the Junior class and honoring the members of the senior class of 1919.

THREE PLAYGROUNDS TO OPEN DURING SUMMER

Three playgrounds are to be maintained for the coming summer months according to Superintendent Collins at a meeting of the school board Wednesday night. Whittier, Garfield and Horace Mann schools are named as the sites.

No increase in the salary of P. C. Masterson, janitor of the Fairport building, was allowed. The present pay of $40 per month must suffice since only part time is given to the work there by Masterson.

Total attendance of all schools showed an enrollment of 7424 pupils, an increase of 367 over last year.

The employment of teachers for the coming term will be taken up at the next meeting, June 9.

TRASH BOX BURNS

Central fire department was called at about 3:30 Thursday morning to the rear of the Manhattan Hotel where a trash box had caught fire. Timely arrival of the fire department saved the building from any damage.

BOOMED FOR THE STATE JOB

COLUMBUS — J. A. Reynolds, of Cleveland, member of the legislature, is boomed for a berth on the state board of administration to replace D. S. Creamer. Senate Republicans say they will confirm the appointment of Reynolds, a Democrat.

Board of Health Now in Charge of Garbage

Council members did not hesitate to say as their names were called when the passage of the ordinance regarding the garbage proposition was put up to them Wednesday night.

Mayor Simpson called a special meeting to rush this question which had been held up for several weeks. Complaints from residence owners, and urgings of the health officer, made it necessary that some action be taken to dispose of the accumulating garbage thruout the city.

A contract has been advertised for which bids will be received, for the collection and removal of garbage.

DECORATION DAY WE WILL HAVE A FULL LINE OF SEASONABLE CUT FLOWERS INCLUDING ROSES, CARNATIONS, PEONIES, IRIS, ETC. ALSO FANCY POTTED PLANTS IN BLOOM.

ACADEMY OF SCIENCE MEETS AT COLUMBUS

COLUMBUS — Among the more than 50 topics to be discussed by the Ohio Academy of Science meeting, which opens at Ohio State University, Thursday afternoon, the following was sighted at random:

"Polymorphism and allelomorphism in druchus quadrinaculatus," remarks on the phylum prosopylea; "concerning the attachment of larval colonies of pectinatella and plumatella"; notes on a technique for the study of euglenidae; "the normality vs the psychopathy of the precocious child"; "the nature of diatomeousness in the mump"; "abolition of popular delusions."

Officers will be elected Friday.

BLISS NATIVE HERB TABLETS TO-NIGHT AT BEDTIME

Resinol OVERCOMES SKIN TROUBLES

Although that unsightly skin eruption is conspicuous, it may be overcome with Resinol Ointment. Decide at once to give the healing medication of this ointment a chance to correct your trouble. Best and speedier results are obtained by the joint use of Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment. This soap contains in a modified form the same soothing medication as is embodied in the ointment. The combined use of the ointment and soap seldom fails to relieve even the most annoying skin disorders on the body and limbs.

For a free trial of soap and ointment, write Resinol, Baltimore, Md. All druggists sell this soap and ointment.

DRY DAYS ARE HARD ON TIRES

Auto drivers are having additional troubles these days. They have to keep their eyes peeled for broken glass on the streets.

Persons who take their drinks from bottles they carry are not particular where they throw the empties. The result is that there is more broken glass in Lima streets than ever before in the city's history. Many of the bottles were thrown on the street from autos on the closing wet nights, police say.

TERRIBLE SORES

No Matter How Chronic, Hunter's Drug Stores and Butler's South Side Drug Store Guarantee San Cura Ointment to Give Relief and Offer Permanent Cure.

"My daughter was troubled for over a year with a fever sore on her leg, and was helpless in bed for three months. To the great surprise of all, including the four doctors who had attended her, San Cura Ointment healed the great sore in less than six weeks." J. D. Hood, Townville, Pa.

Karl C. Banks, of the Atlantic Refining Co., of Pittsburgh, had a sore on his ankle for a year. He doctored and tried various remedies without relief. He says: "San Cura Ointment worked like a charm; reduced the swelling and healed the sore in two weeks."

Bear in mind, that besides sores San Cura Ointment is used with great success in eczema, boils, carbuncles, salt rheum, tetter, also itching, bleeding and protruding piles. In cases of burns, scalds, cuts and bruises, San Cura is most valuable. The price is only 30c, 60c and $1.20 a jar, and Hunter's Drug Stores and Butler's South Side Drug Store guarantee it.

COMPLEXION SOAP

If you want a lovely complexion, with soft, velvety skin, free from pimples and blackheads, use San Cura Soap, the great antiseptic and skin purifier. 25 cents a cake at Hunter's Drug Stores and Butler's South Side Drug Store.

If you can't get it at your druggist send to the Thompson Medical Co.
